

March

of

Peace

Bosnia and Herzegovina

120km trek

6 - 12 July 2014

Email dmason@womenforwomen.org or call 0207 922 7774

Follow the steps of the refugees of the 1995 genocide in Srebrenica and raise vital funds for women survivors of war.

Tima is a survivor of the Bosnian War.

Through the Women for Women International programme, Tima was able to grow her agricultural business and now supports her family of six.

- 120km route, 40km walking a day, from Tuzla to Srebrenica.
- Stay in homestays along the route, meet survivors of the war and hear their humbling and inspiring stories of survival.
- See the impact of Women for Women International's work in Bosnia and Herzegovina, participate in training classes and visit programme graduates.
- All money raised will support Women for Women International's work with women survivors of war.
- To find out more visit womenforwomen.org.uk/march

"An incredible and inspiring journey - walking together and witnessing the amazing work WfWI have done so far, but also how much work there is still to do."

Nicky Kinnaird, Founder Space.NK